1. The Government of India has decided to launch a new scheme for the development of the country. The scheme is called 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' and it aims to make the country self-reliant in all sectors. The scheme will be implemented in various sectors such as agriculture, industry, infrastructure, and services. The government has allocated a budget of Rs. 100,000 crore for the scheme. The scheme will be implemented in a phased manner over a period of five years. The first phase will focus on the development of the agriculture sector. The second phase will focus on the development of the industry sector. The third phase will focus on the development of the infrastructure sector. The fourth phase will focus on the development of the services sector. The fifth phase will focus on the development of the human resources sector. The scheme will be implemented in a coordinated manner across all sectors. The government has appointed a committee to oversee the implementation of the scheme. The committee will report to the government on the progress of the scheme. The government will take necessary steps to ensure the successful implementation of the scheme. The scheme is expected to create millions of jobs and boost the economy of the country. The scheme is a landmark decision by the government and it is expected to have a positive impact on the country's development.
